David Guiles (to Everyone): 11:12 AM: Morning!

Timothy Clothier (to Everyone): 11:17 AM: Good Morning Dave!

David Guiles (Private): 11:21 AM: Is there two minutes to update on global Charis ALLIANCE response?

Joseph Sowers (to Everyone): 11:22 AM: we are using zoom to host meetings for groups such as ladies families and youth

Randy Clark (to Everyone): 11:24 AM: Grace Church of Orange has purchased 3 for home groups to use wade rininger (to Everyone): 11:26 AM: Yeah Assist!!!

Joseph Sowers (to Everyone): 11:26 AM: looking for affordable option for setup to improve video quality over sing my laptop or iPad...

Erik Jensen (to Everyone): 11:28 AM: Also! Use this time to reconnect with the people who have given you their info but maybe don't come to your church. Sinners need toilet paper too

Brad Gromis (to Everyone): 11:31 AM: Worship Wherever! That's a great resource.

Bartley Sawatsky (to Everyone): 11:32 AM: I'm blessed to have a staff that are oretty young and in touch with this technology, but I'm sure every one of our churches has people who understand how to do things like livestreams, we just need to tap into them

Scott (to Everyone): 11:33 AM: any ideas for Easter? Anyone doing anything different?

Scott Avey (to Everyone): 11:34 AM: So one HUGE question is just how long this is gonna last? I'm prepping my team to plan at least to Easter. (Being a portable church that is bound to the school is a huge part of that)

Keith Minier (to Everyone): 11:34 AM: Scott - we are recording a pretty extensive opener and are talking about doing baptisms from people's homes

Scott Avey (to Everyone): 11:34 AM: Nice. Thanks Keith

Scott Avey (to Everyone): 11:34 AM: Keith, are you doing simulated live, or actual live?

Keith Minier (to Everyone): 11:35 AM: Simulated live

Bartley Sawatsky (to Everyone): 11:35 AM: Guys, this is going to last a LOT LONGER than people think

Douglas Courter (to Everyone): 11:35 AM: Scott. I'm considering a drive-in for Easter. Not sure it would really work for our people.

Nathan (to Everyone): 11:35 AM: I'm very interested in how churches are leveraging the crisis to engage their community?

ANDREW SAUNDERS (to Everyone): 11:35 AM: Our PA governer is saying it will last through April 17th

Scott (to Everyone): 11:36 AM: Keith cool!

Douglas Courter (to Everyone): 11:36 AM: Any idea of how to keep people watching? Our watch rate was several minutes shorter than the actual message.

Scott (to Everyone): 11:36 AM: Doug. I was thinking of doing drive in too. thinking through those logistics now.

Nathan (to Everyone): 11:38 AM: Keith what are some specific ways you are directing your people to engage their community as individuals?

Erik Jensen (to Everyone): 11:39 AM: I want to know where pastor Roland gets his jackets!

Daniel O'Deens (to Everyone): 11:40 AM: APP... food finder shows all distribution centers and pantry's across the USA

Bartley Sawatsky (to Everyone): 11:40 AM: Good websites like www.ourworldindata.org can help you see daily updated charts that can help you predict the rise and fall of the wave. Here in NA we are just starting the ride.

Keith Minier (to Everyone): 11:40 AM: Nathan - we are working with our local partners and asking them and then we are mobilizing our resources.

Weston (to Everyone): 11:40 AM: We are asking our people to call neighbors, let them know they can help. Sewing masks for hospital, bringing diapers to Crisis Pregnancy center.

Daniel O'Deens (to Everyone): 11:40 AM: WORLDOMETER.info

Scott Avey (to Everyone): 11:41 AM: Question: how are youth/children's ministries adapting to this?

Randy Clark (to Everyone): 11:41 AM: sending out a post card to our surrounding neighbors with a link to pod cast and sunday sermon

Bartley Sawatsky (to Everyone): 11:42 AM: Dan, that worldometer link isn't working for me...

Daniel O'Deens (to Everyone): 11:43 AM: REALITY: The economic crisis will be greater and longer term than COVID-19. Great depression 1.9 million job losses...We will in the next 2 weeks see over 2 million jobs lost. Job Fairs...Career Coaching...Resume writing...Financial PEACE University

Dustin (to Everyone): 11:43 AM: we are prepping packets for kids and shooting a video from the leaders talking through the activity craft that they would do on Sunday morning. I am asking parents to RSVP for a packet and having them pick up the packet at church- bagging things and labeling them with names.

Barb Wooler (to Everyone): 11:43 AM: Western Reserve also has a version of dollar club; called the Five Dollar Club for same ends as Grace Fellowship(Pickerington)

Info: Five Dollar Club <fivedollarclub@westernreservegc.com>

Scott (to Everyone): 11:43 AM: Any thoughts about how you might do communion. we usually do something on Good Friday.

Daniel O'Deens (to Everyone): 11:44 AM:

<https://www.worldometers.info/coronavirus/country/us/>

Bartley Sawatsky (to Everyone): 11:44 AM: thx

Adam Copenhaver (to Everyone): 11:44 AM: Some pastoral/shepherding questions: How do we comfort people who have lost their jobs and businesses and are now isolated at home? How do we connect with people who do not have internet access? How do we check on our at-risk kids whose homes are overcrowded and unsafe? How do we do pastoral visits at the hospital when visitations are banned?

ryan bowell (to Everyone): 11:44 AM: thx dano

Liz Gates (to Everyone): 11:45 AM: There is a story about the Five Dollar Club at Western Reserve in the last issue of GraceConnect. It was also a story in the eNews.

Bartley Sawatsky (to Everyone): 11:45 AM: I've used that one too, Dan. Great website.

Barb Wooler (to Everyone): 11:46 AM: Encompass is hosting a webinar: Emotinoal First Aid in Covid-19 times. This will be on April 6th. Landing page isn't up yet but contact John Ward to pre-register jward@encompassworld.org Must sign up in pairs.

Daniel O'Deens (to Everyone): 11:48 AM: Let's Recognize.. IT IS A NEW DAY. Are we thinking for the future? Will it ever get back to 'normal'? Do we even want it to? Should you plan to maintain some level of community via online as well as coming back to the weekend event.

Scott (to Everyone): 11:48 AM: Adam I am also wondering how to connect with people without internet. I'm assuming just call them more, but I would love more ideas

Daniel O'Deens (to Everyone): 11:48 AM: We can GROW Our Churches during this season

Daniel O'Deens (to Everyone): 11:49 AM: Your giving in part will be in proportion to your plan to service your community

Bartley Sawatsky (to Everyone): 11:49 AM: Dan, great point. We're asking the same things.

Keith Minier (to Everyone): 11:49 AM: Dave/ Barb - please be sure to let our churches know what the global needs are.

Timothy Clothier (to Everyone): 11:49 AM: Adam & Scott, we're trying to our video resources onto DVD for our old people and we hand wrote cards to the entire church last week and mailed them out.

Daniel O'Deens (to Everyone): 11:49 AM: We do not create change...but we do need to step into it

Timothy Clothier (to Everyone): 11:49 AM: Little things...but reminders that we're praying and our people are not alone.

Scott (to Everyone): 11:50 AM: good idea Tim. thanks!

Barb Wooler (to Everyone): 11:50 AM: Will do, Keith. You guys are amazing. Truly grateful for you folks.

Daniel O'Deens (to Everyone): 11:50 AM: Are you monitoring your growth and numbers in your small groups or those connecting through social or live feeds?

Daniel O'Deens (to Everyone): 11:50 AM: TRACK IT...Reach out and follow through

Keith Minier (to Everyone): 11:51 AM: Dan O - we are tracking our numbers

Daniel O'Deens (to Everyone): 11:51 AM: Keith...would love to see that in a month out

Tom Avey (to Everyone): 11:51 AM: Phil - Do you have links to that information?

Eric Miller (to Everyone): 11:51 AM: Agree with you Dan ... we need to remember that our online presence and social media is the new front door to our churches and so it's likely that many lost people will use this season to watch what we're doing. It's a safe way for them to check out our church without actually engaging, so it will be important for us to make avenues to engage them and speak to them knowing they are watching

Dustin (to Everyone): 11:52 AM: we are working to create our "connection class" to be mobile. new people can watch our material and see how they can get more connected to our mission as a church.

Nathan (to Everyone): 11:52 AM: A big need for lots of guys is how to do worship in this format.

Erik Jensen (to Everyone): 11:53 AM: If you have some questions about music or podcasts, I'd be more than happy to give you guys any info...

Bartley Sawatsky (to Everyone): 11:53 AM: Great point Brad!

Adam Copenhaver (to Everyone): 11:53 AM: Anybody have any thoughts on at what point and in what way it may be necessary to resist government bans that directly restrict our pastoral and church calling? For example, Washington state does not list religious workers as essential, and all spiritual gatherings are banned, both public and private. Not sure where it might go next.

Roland Maust (to Everyone): 11:54 AM: worship is the need question ... what can we and can we NOT broadcast

Nathan (to Everyone): 11:54 AM: Keith your awesome.

Tom Avey (to Everyone): 11:54 AM: Feel free to borrow sermon themes and graphics from each other. Get permission and give credit but borrow what you need.

Dustin (to Everyone): 11:54 AM: We had to purchase an addition CCLI license to stream our worship. might need to look into that.

Bartley Sawatsky (to Everyone): 11:56 AM: Thanks, Phil, for hosting this. Thanks for your leadership.

David Guiles (to Everyone): 11:57 AM: We need some brains and theologians addressing Adam's questions about civil disobedience. After all, we are brethren, right?

Daniel O'Deens (to Everyone): 11:57 AM: I love you all and am praying for your leadership in this critical times. Here to assist if you need help.
